1975 - a year to remember. There were so many things to do and places to go that I hardly had time to fit everything in.

Of course, there was always classroom work to do. Like every other student, I was besieged with books, reports, special projects, and worst of all, exams.

School work often took a back seat to extracurricular activities, though. How can I ever forget:

The disappointing Homecoming loss to Evergreen.

It was all so much fun.

I'd like to remember these precious moments forever, but the memories, like the jeans that I wear, will soon be . . .

Faded and Fringed.

1975 - a year filled with many problems throughout the nation and the entire world.

When President Ford began his new administration, my attention was drawn from Watergate to rising inflation and the worsening recession. The economic situation looked dim as I watched the jobless rate climb to 10.7% in Defiance County and 14.8% in nearby Williams County. A few economists were even venturing to use that horrible word "depression" in their predictions of the future. The recession was barely visible at Fairview, however. Life continued as usual, especially on the sports scene. Although the price of the admission was raised 25¢, the crowds at football and basketball games and wrestling matches grew larger as the teams' win columns got longer.

Not all of our nation's problems concerned economics though. In the Middle East, Secretary Kissinger's peace negotiations reached an impasse and war between Israel and the Arab nations seemed inevitable.

As spring approached, and Congress refused to grant military aid to Indochina, Communist troops began to invade and capture more and more South Vietnamese cities. With the fall of Da Nang in late March, the collapse of South Vietnam looked almost certain.

The problems of 1975, however, seem distant already, and the memories, like the jeans that I wear, will soon be . . .

Faded and Fringed.

School!

Almost the Same as Last Year

Fairview's hallways bustled with nearly 550 students on the morning of September 3, 1974. At 8:38, the first bell rang and another school year began. To the 122 freshmen, life at high school was a completely new experience; but to the returning upperclassmen, things seemed almost the same. The building hadn't changed much over the summer, the same teachers were back from last year, study halls were just as boring, classes became routine, the long hours of practice after school for sports began again, organizations started to work on their projects, and generally everyone settled in to do the work ahead of them.

There were a few new changes, however, during the school year. Six new courses were offered to the students; NIKE Club was added to the list of organizations; and on October 15, the Board of Education changed one of Fairview's basic policies by ruling that married and/or pregnant students would be allowed to attend classes during regular school hours. The decision, however, affected only a few people. About mid-year, the faculty was expanded as Mrs. Dana Schreder began to work part-time in the language department.

As the year progressed, the dress code seemed to slacken a bit - guys' hair grew longer and pant suits weren't quite "pant suits". The fads changed too: hooded sweaters and striped socks were "in" and saddle shoes were on their way "out". As the year continued, apathy in the classroom, which had always existed in some students, began to spread to a large percentage of the student body, causing concern among faculty and administration.

Still, the year 1974-75 went on much the same as any other. The students were still basically the same - they laughed, cried, made friends, worked, studied, and learned many important lessons from their year's experience.

Homecoming

Rain Dampened Festive Spirits

"Don't forget to order your mums," the announcements from the Varsity Club said every morning as the 1974 Homecoming drew nearer. Preparations had been going on for several weeks before, finally, on Friday, September 27, the big day came.

Pre-game festivities began as Jerry Caryer escorted Freshman attendant - Helen Barrera across Apache Field. Following them were Sophomore Attendant - Sue Rieke, Junior attendant - Jean Armstrong, Senior attendant - Theda Hale, and their escorts. Last came 1974-75 Homecoming Queen Deb Fogle, escorted by Terry Masser. 1973-74 Queen Diane Sailor presented her with her crown and Deb made her acceptance speech, then she and her court moved to their seats to watch the game.

A light rain fell during the first half of the game as neither Fairview or Evergreen could get across the goal line. In the third period Fairview began moving the ball rapidly and a 48-yard-run by Johnson gave the Apaches a 6-point lead, but the Vikings went wild in the fourth quarter, scoring nineteen points. The Apaches went to an aerial attack but the slippery field and Evergreen's defense made their passing attempts futile. So, the final gun sounded with Fairview suffering a 19-6 loss.

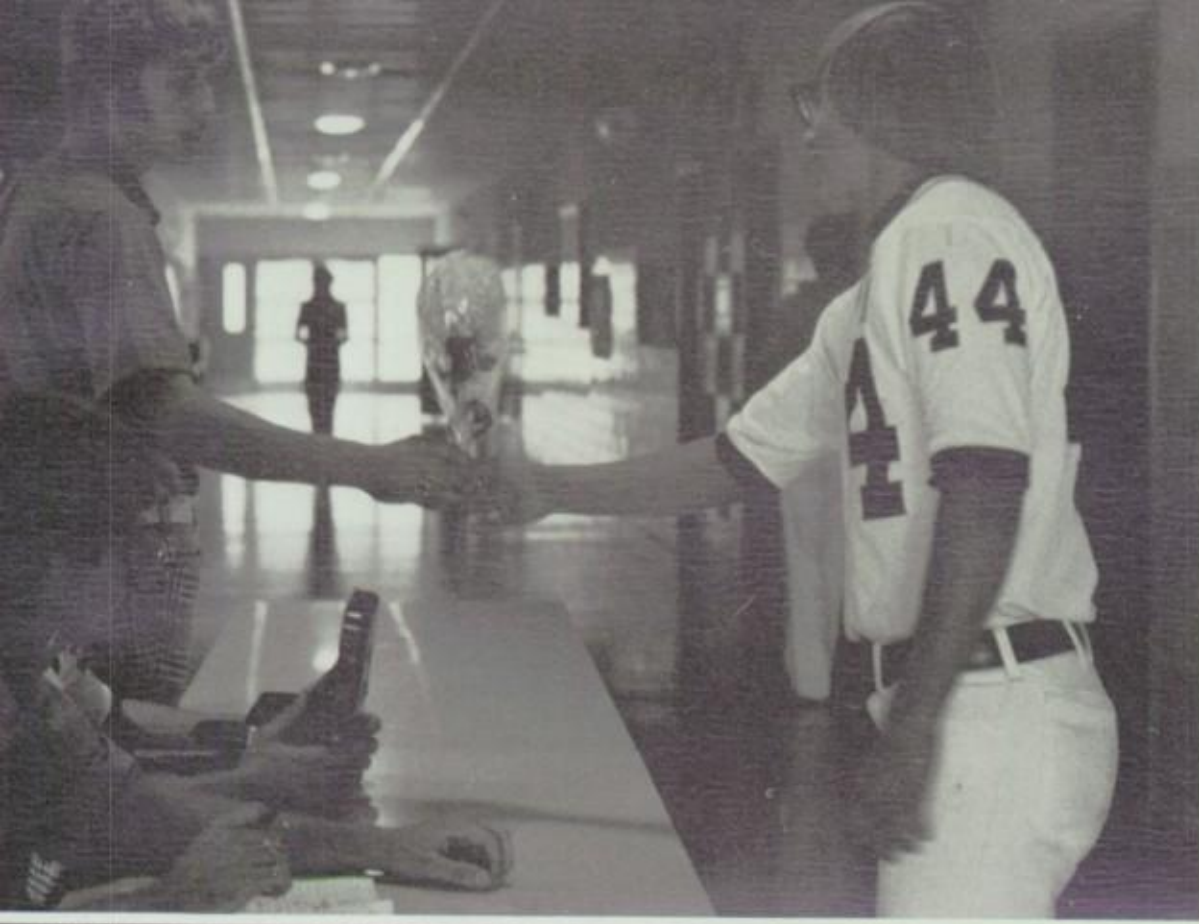

Rain-drenched and disappointed, students and players headed for the school. Because of a conflict with the Band Spectacular, the dance was held right after the game rather than the following night. Decorated to the theme of "Hayride Harvest," the gym boasted pumpkins, squashes, straw, a real wagon, and a scarecrow.

"Kinder Hook," from Bryan, better known as "Terry Keeterle's band," provided hard and soft rock tunes while NHS members passed out the pizzas from Pizza Pete and served pop and cookies.

The turnout was tremendous and extra chairs had to be brought into the gym to seat everyone.

"Country"

Chorus Presents Annual Variety Show

"Four hands up and around you go . . ."

"When you get straight it's a do-si-do!"

The chorus launched into a new year of swingin' by hosting a Country-Western Show on November 8, 1974. This was the chorus' annual fall program, and as usual it was an exceptional performance.

The evening swung into a rapid tempo under the direction of Mrs. Schulte as it began with old country tunes including: "There's a Hole in My Bucket" and "Red River Valley." On the more contemporary scene such famous tunes as:
"Sunshine on My Shoulders," "Paper Roses" and finally "Snowbird" were performed by Fairview's vocalists. Also numerous brave souls indulged themselves in a bit of old-fashioned American tradition by presenting a square dance. This portion of our dated culture came at the very spring of the evening to the song
"Country Style."

The apex of the entire affair was a pantomime to the tune of "Don't Fence Me In." Wildcat was played by Lisa Morrell, Sweetheart by Chris Roberts and the Sheriff was Mike Keeterle. Another highlight was a medley with the chorus and the audience singing in unison
"She'll Be Comin' Round the Mountain,"
"Wait for the Wagon," "Oh, Susanna," "Home on the Range" and "America the Beautiful."

The chorus' program this year was unique in that it cost nothing to finance and produce. A free will offering was collected and a profit of $160.00 was made, to be used for choral expenditures.

The program came to a close with a few tears in the eyes of the seniors - the seniors sad that it was all over and the underclassmen looking forward to next year's program.

Donley sings "Stop and Smell the Roses," the final solo of the evening.

show singing "Country Style."

Assemblies

Charles King Returns to FV

A spirit of unity filled the gym as Mr. Charles King performed for the third time before a Fairview audience. Singing acapella or accompanying himself on the piano, he entertained the student body with folk songs and spirituals including "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen," "They'll Know We Are Brothers By Our Love," and "Things I Used to Do I Don't Do No More." He involved the audience in "Et Pay Tata Les," "If You're Happy and You Know It," and "Amen," then Ken Losey, Rita Kash, John Mack, and Janice Arend joined him in singing "It's Me, Oh Lord." Then he left the gym singing "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot."

Amazed "Ahhh's" rang from the audience on Monday, March 10 when Terry and Ursula Henderson did their thing. Terry, who hailed from British Columbia, was an expert acrobat and trampoline artist. He demonstrated many daring flips on the trampoline then brought Donny Guilford out of the audience and showed him a few stunts on the tramp. Ursula Henderson, from Zurich, Switzerland, demonstrated her talents in the "wheel" and an acrobatic dance that closed the show.

Winter

Chilly Breezes and Rosy Faces

"Hey, look at it snow!" When the fluffy white flakes began to fall in November, the entire student body seemed infested with a holiday spirit. At noon, they ventured from their warm haven in the gym onto the school grounds to be pelted with snowballs or to try their hand at building a snowman. Winter pastimes included ice skating, tobogganning, and snowmobiling turned long hours into pleasant memories.

The ice and snow, however, made driving very difficult. Everyone over sixteen seemed addicted to sliding around on major highways, running into ditches, and getting stuck in gigantic snow drifts.

Of course, Christmas vacation was the highlight of the winter season. For two glorious weeks students were free to go to parties, catch up on sleep, or anything else they cared to do.

Fun & Music

High Attendance at Annual Dances

This year's Christmas Dance was held on December 23, in spite of a heavy snowfall during the day. The student council and class officers decorated the gym to the theme of "Old Fashioned Christmas," with a fireplace, several trees, and a real sleigh. The doors opened at 8:00 and by 8:30, 275 people had entered, one of the largest turnouts ever.

Something new was tried this year. Instead of the usual crashing music of a rock 'n roll band, a few soft notes were provided by the "Misties," an area dance band. There were varying reactions among the students to this new innovation, some liking it extremely well and others violently opposed. Consideration was given to having the band return to perform at the Jr.-Sr. Prom.

Even though the dance committee ended up four dollars in the red, this year's Sweetheart Hop was unanimously declared a success by the two hundred attending students and faculty.

Music was provided by "Thur Thomas Johnston," a newly organized band from Pandora-Gilboa, and judging by the activity on the dance floor, they were well liked. The few who didn't care to dance enjoyed listening to them perform a variety of soft rock tunes.

This year the dance was moved from the cafeteria to the gym where a huge mural covered the wall and seven colors of streamers accented the theme of "Building a Rainbow." Refreshments and decorations were handled by the FHA and the FFA under the supervision of Elaine Hellemn, Tammy Schindler, Sue Rieke, and Rose Seibert.

The 1950's

Chorus Ventures Back in Time

In greased hair and pony tails, rolled up jeans and below-the-knee skirts, chorus members entertained the crowd at their annual spring concert with songs and skits from the 1950's. The show, held on Saturday evening, May 10, opened with a rousing chorus of "76 Trombones" then slowed in pace as the girls' glee club sang two enchanting songs from West Side Story - "Tonight" and "Somewhere."

Solos, duets, and trios including "Misty," "Moon River," and "Soldier Boy" followed. Then the audience roared with laughter as Lisa Morrell introduced the five semi-finalists of the Miss America of 1955 contest and declared Mike Keeterle the winner. To finish the first half of the concert, the full chorus sang selections from the "Sound of Music" then donned mouse ears for the "Mickey Mouse Club Song."

The swing choir opened the second half by singing "What the World Needs Now is Love Sweet Love," then turned the stage over to more soloists and ensembles. Midway through the second half, the men's chorus sang "There Ain't Nothing Like a Dame" then the girls joined them in "Some Enchanted Evening," and "Edelweiss."

Laughter again filled the gymnasium as "mad scientist" Ken Losey sang "The Monster Mash." Monster Chet Lilly rose from his slab to man the drums and Vampire Mike Bok played the guitar while Rita Kash, Bozo Myers, Neal Koch, and Dave Raker sang harmony. The show was then brought to a close as chorus members surrounded the audience to do the "Hokey-Pokey."

"Showboat"

Country Music Enlivens Dance

Meetings of the junior class became frequent, blue sheets started to pile up in the Home Ec. rooms, and decorations began to arrive in the office as the date for the 1975 Jr.-Sr. Prom drew closer. Finally, the gym was sealed off from the eyes of the seniors and the juniors disappeared inside only to reappear on Friday afternoon after everything was ready.

Early Saturday evening upperclassmen and their dates feasted on salad, ham, baked potatoes, and dessert in the cafeteria, then walked down the hallway to the gym. Decorated to the theme of "Showboat," the gym was a nautical wonderland. Blue sheets billowed from the ceiling and black lights added to the seaman's atmosphere. On the stage a photographer posed couples in front of a huge lighthouse and a real sailboat. The senior motto covered one wall and in the corner sophomores dressed in sailor's garb served the refreshments.

Escaping from tradition, the juniors employed "Country Roads" to play for the dance. Soft country tunes and several fast songs drifted through the air and twice couples in suits and long gowns took to the floor for a square dance.

As the hour grew later, students went home to change into more casual clothes, then drifted into the Bryan Theatre to see "Play it Again, Sam." The movie, starring Woody Allen, was a hilarious account of a young divorcee's search for a new mate.

After the movie, those who hadn't already fallen asleep drove to the Bryan Lanes to bowl a few games. Fairview students and their dates crowded the lanes and showed off their talents. Then as the sky grew lighter, many headed back to the school for a breakfast of rolls and juice.

Graduation

145 Graduates Receive Diplomas

As 1500 friends and relatives stood in the sultry heat of the Fairview gymnasium on Sunday, May 25, the Class of 1975 marched slowly toward the stage to the tune of "Pomp and Circumstance." After the 145 seniors had taken their places on the stage and Rev. Lanny Zup had said the Invocation, everyone was seated and Rev. Kenneth Laffin of the Ney and Union Chapel Churches of God rose to deliver the Baccalaureate Address. Rev. Laffin discussed the senior motto "In Ourselves the Future Lies," then turned the program over to Mrs. Schulte who directed the choir in singing "Hosanna," and "With a Voice of Singing." Mr. Mountz followed by presenting the Valedictorian Award to Ann Wilhelm and the Salutatorian Award to Kristen Culler.

Mr. Don Wolfe, managing editor of the Toledo Blade, then delivered the Commencement Address in which he related several humorous stories to the problems the graduates would face in the future. The band followed with the Commencement Overture - "Ringgold Rhapsody." After the senior band members returned to the stage, Mr. Breisinger rose to the podium to present the Class of 1975 then Mr. Edgar Baker, president of the Board of Education, handed out the diplomas. One by one, the graduates made that long walk across the stage amid the flash of cameras to receive their precious documents. then returned eagerly to their seats where they could check to see if their diplomas were really signed. Responding for his fellow graduates, senior class president Ole Barrera offered appropriate thanks to parents, teachers, and underclassmen. After the senior choir members sang "The Way We Were," and Rev. Jup delivered the Benediction, the largest class ever to graduate from Fairview marched back through the crowd while the band played "Music for Ceremonies," and headed for the cafeteria where they could relieve themselves of their hot gowns. They then said good-byes to their classmates and left with their families for their parties and receptions.

Three History Mini-Courses Added

History, Guidance, Library

The sophomore World History courses this year implemented a unique teaching method by which the students could choose their second semester history course. During the first semester, all students followed the book and took general survey. For the second semester students could choose general survey or the wars course, taught by Mr. Fritz, or Mr. Srtaziuso's course on Russia, China, and the Far East.

Likewise, Mr. Edwards' junior American history class offered three "Mini-courses," the Presidents, Minorities, and Political and Cultural Studies of the Twentieth Century. Students chose one of these after taking one semester of Survey. The use of mini-courses was deemed a success and are to be continued in the academic curriculum.

RIGHT: In Spanish I, student teacher Senior Lucio uses props to describe the culture of Mexico.

Mr. Fritz' American government class aided the students as they learned the National parks of America.

Acting as librarian, Mrs. Johns took charge of the library's books plus numerous magazines, newspapers, and other references. The library seats 35 people and about 30 books were signed out each day.

In his seventh year, Mr. Mountz served as Fairview's guidance counselor. Mr. Mountz helps students with academic and personal problems they may experience during their school years at Fairview. Mr. Mountz also aids students in choosing the correct education for their future, such as the Four County Vocational School or attending a college or university. Mr. Mountz also serves as advisor of Fairview's chapter of the Student Action for Education organization.

Mrs. Schreder Joins Faculty

English, Language

Hola! Bon jour! Old and new Spanish and French students again spent time writing, speaking, and studying the culture of various foreign countries. Mrs. Brackett was aided by our new foreign language teacher, Mrs. Schreder, this year. Mr. Lucio, a student teacher from Defiance College taught the Spanish courses for the first school semester while Mrs. Brackett taught the French classes. Beginning with the second semester, Mrs. Schreder taught the Spanish III class and one of the Spanish II classes.

A Bryan High School exchange student, Gabriela Alvarly from Argentina, was a guest speaker and discussed her native country in comparison with the United States.

Additional films, in foreign languages and English, and records were included in the instructional media of the classes this year.

The English Department at Fairview consisted of four teachers. In Miss Nolan's English I class, literature remained the main subject. Each student was responsible for four or five speeches. A unit on Shakespeare was studied, along with a number of other books and plays.

New cassette tapes and filmstrips were used by Mrs. Fritz in her Practical English class. Miss Nolan and Mrs. Fritz also taught an English II class. This year Books for Living was open to Juniors, too, rather than seniors only.

Teaching a new class was Mrs. Johns. The new course, Multi-Media Communication, studied how the media affects students lives. Field trips for this course were taken to WONW Radio Station in Defiance and WANE TV in Fort Wayne.

Mrs. Cramer's Modern Drama class attended plays in Fort Wayne and Montpelier. They also visited the Toledo Art Museum.

New Math Course Added

Classes Use Visual Aids

The business department of Fairview is made up of three teachers: Mr. Rupp who teaches General Business, Clerical Record Keeping, Journalism, and Accounting I and II; Mrs. Sweebe who teaches Personal Typing, Typing I and BEOPS; and Mrs. Miller who teaches Business Math. This year the department also received services from Mr. Tim Walland and Mrs. Judith Burton, two student teachers from Defiance College.

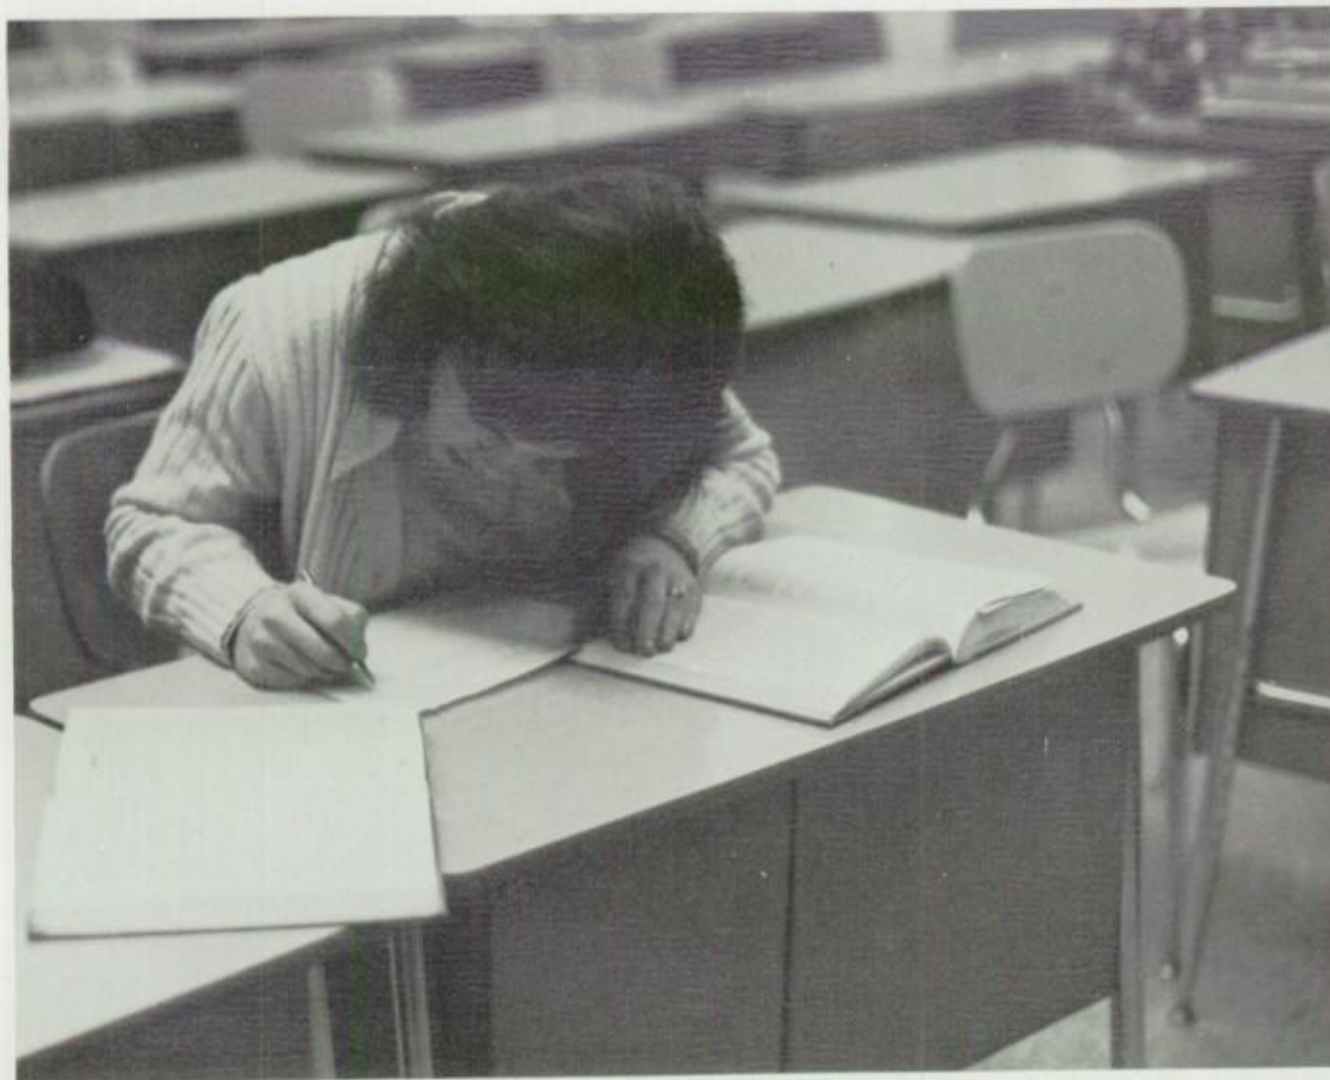

The business classes were treated to a number of fine speakers this year. There were two representatives from United Telephone for business, an insurance man to discuss the aspects and advantages of a good insurance policy, and a member of the American Automobile Association expounded upon the proper planning of a trip. The business classes also saw instructive films on credit, our national banking system, money management, and life insurance.

The Accounting II class was revived after an absence of five years from the Fairview curriculum. Also, the Clerical class received new books this year.

The BEOPS (Business English, Office Practice and Shorthand) class took field trips this year to the telephone company, to learn about its functions; to the Vita-Life Health Spa; and to the Defiance College to listen to a speaker on interviews.

The math department at Fairview is managed by Mr. Peters, Mr. Miller, and Mrs. Miller. There was a new math course added this year in Refresher Math. The course was designed for students to learn basic mathematical fundamentals.

Mr. Miller, Mr. Dietrick and Mr. Bruglar teach courses in the Science Department. In General Science this year freshmen used a biology paperback for a mini-biology course. Mr. Bruglar's Human Anatomy class dissected and studied the various organs of the cat.

Wedding Highlights Family Living Class

Males Invade Home Ec.

Mrs. Husted and Mrs. Struble prepare students for marriage and home life through the practical arts of homemaking. This department is divided into Home Economics I and II, Family Living, Child Care, Advanced Cooking and Sewing.

This year a "Chefs' Class," was added to the curriculum for senior men who wanted to learn the basic fundamentals of cooking.

The classes of Home Economics this year practiced cooking for one semester and sewed for the second semester. They prepared family-sized dishes and made simple articles of clothing. The course is geared to individual ability as each student is allowed to work at their own pace.

The Family Living class this past year had a number of guest speakers. A representative from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare discussed the services provided by Social Security. An appliance salesman presented the advantages of modern appliances for the homemaker, an insurance salesman expounded on the different types of insurance, a doctor gave a presentation on the cost of raising a child and a priest presented his philosophy of marriage. The class also visited a funeral home to learn about its functions and services.

The Child Care class was allowed to bring in their smaller brothers and sisters and let them participate in a kindergarten like atmosphere. The class also viewed films that dealt with the birth and proper care of an infant as it grows. For a field trip, the class and the visiting children took a trip to Fronke Park in Fort Wayne, Indiana.

The Vocational Agriculture department of Fairview is headed by Mr. Poulson and Mr. Welsh. The aim of Vo-Ag is to educate the young farmer in the modern methods of agriculture. Vo-Ag itself is composed of different courses. Plant and Animal Science and Farm Management.

This year the Vo-Ag department sent representatives to the Ohio State Judging Contests. The representatives competed in soil, livestock, dairy, poultry, eggs, meat, agronomy wool judging and small engine and tractor trouble shooting at the district and state levels. The class also took a trip to the Farm and Science Review at Ohio State University.

Industrial Arts is taught by Mr. Kretzer. Industrial Arts is broken down into two separate classes, Industrial Arts I where students use saws, lathes, jigsaws and other workshop tools, and Industrial Arts II which deals with the practical applications of electronics and wood-working in which the students make more advanced projects such as cabinets, hutches and tables.

33 Courses Offered

88 Students Attend JVS

For students who are eager to begin a vocation immediately after high school the 4-county Joint Vocational School near Archbold, Ohio provides an alternative to Fairview. Different courses ranging from child care to horticulture to autobody are offered. The school is a 2 year institution and students can take introductory and advanced sessions for their preferred courses. Students at 4-county can also be employed while still going to school.

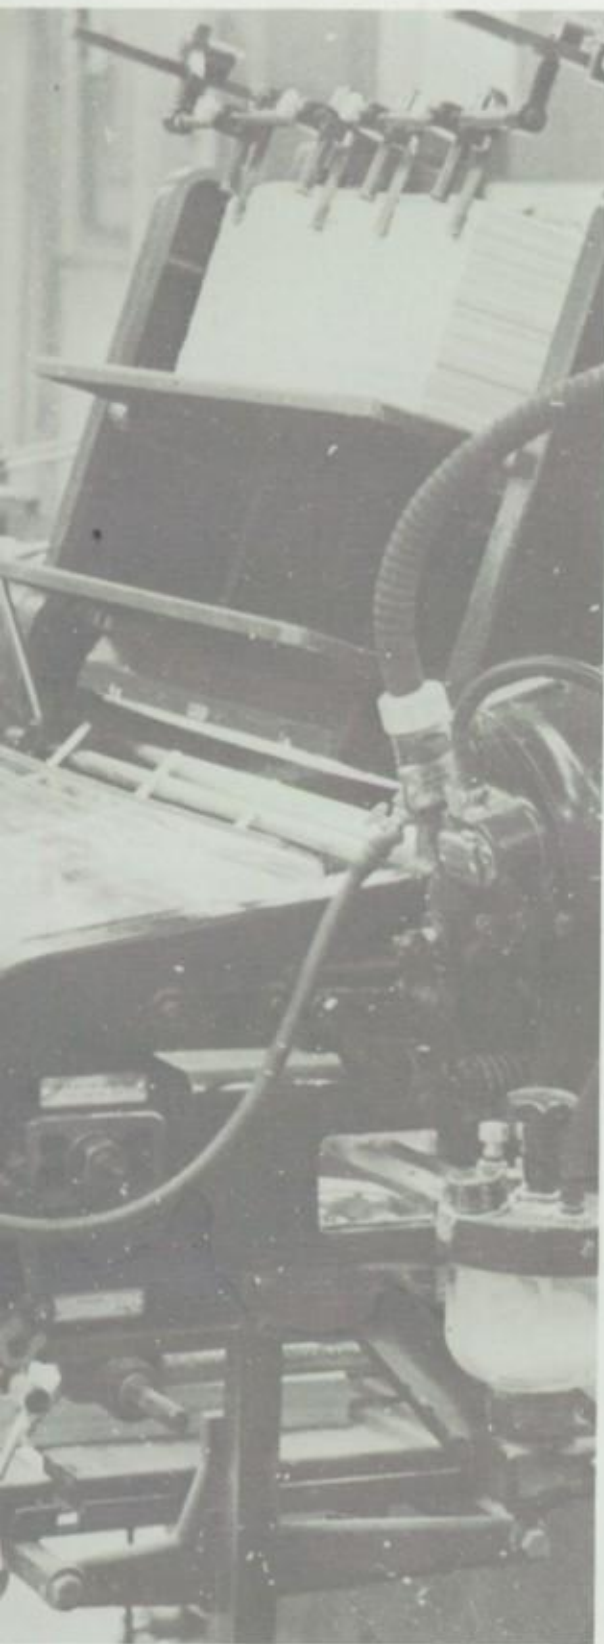

There are thirty-three different courses a Junior or Senior can choose and they are taught by eighty qualified staff members. This year there were approximately 1250 students enrolled, 88 of which were from Fairview. There were 53 Seniors and 35 Juniors enrolled.

Many of the students believe that the JVS is a great opportunity to begin a vocation early in life. The majority of the students signed up for Cosmetology, auto-body, and mechanics.

The JVS offers courses during the summer for students who need extra credits or just want to take a class like cake decorating, government, horticulture, etc. During the summer the students go to school 4 weeks from 9:00 to 12:00. The first session starts on June 9th.

Injuries Hamper Thinclads

The 1974 season was not a spectacular one for the Apache Harriers; plagued by injuries and other misfortunes they posted a record of 7 wins and 12 losses.

With four out of seven lettermen returning, the team's future seemed bright. Fred Stuckey, Clint Doan and Chris Roberts capably filled the three remaining varsity positions, and Craig Haller and John Chamberlin provided much-needed depth for the Apaches.

However, the thinclads got off to a faulty start as a multitude of injuries to key runners forced them to struggle through the remainder of the season.

The thinclads were 5-8 in the Green Meadows Conference and placed 4th in the League Meet. Denny Haller received a trophy for finishing 8th in the league. The Apaches then travelled to Ottawa Hills for the Sectional Tournament. They placed 12th out of 14 teams. Rick Suffel was first for Fairview, placing 47th with a time of 10:48.

This year's most valuable runner was Rick Suffel. Gary Hohenberger was named the most improved runner. The remaining lettermen were: Fred Stuckey, Denny Haller, Clint Doan, Curt Miller, and Chris Roberts.

With 20 returning lettermen and 18 seniors, the spirited Apache football squad experienced one of the best seasons in its short history, posting a 6-2-1 mark for the 1974 season.

The Apaches' season included a 7-7 tie with arch rival Hicksville as a disputed penalty on a field goal attempt cost the Apaches their first win ever over Hicksville. The tie with the Aces carried into the league standings as our mighty gridders and the Aces divided the Northwest Buckeye League championship with identical 4-0-1 records. The teams also shared the newly formed GMC league for football.

The 6-2-1 season, which is the best since our Apache football ancestors of 1969 included the team's first victory over Bryan as they pulled out a 14-8 win.

The Apaches began their season with easy wins over Edon 19-14, Antwerp 40-20, and Edgerton 35-0, dropped a tough game to the Evergreen Vikings on Homecoming Night 19-6, and then rebounded with a shutout versus Wayne Trace 19-0, before the Hicksville battle. Following the draw with the Aces, the Fairview gridders dropped a close decision to Patrick Henry 27-23, and then finished the season by annihilating the Cadets of Hilltop 41-6 on Parents' Night, and Bryan in the season's finale.

Teamwise the Apache offense averaged 22.7 points per game with junior Mike Johnson heading the scoring list with 10 touchdowns. Senior quarterback Mark Rhodes set a record for most touchdown passes in a game with 3 against Hilltop, and junior Jerry Brown added a new twist to the Apache machine, as he kicked 18 of the team's 21 extra point tries, and set a school record with his 28-yard field goal versus Wayne Trace.

As a team the Apaches averaged 195 yards rushing per game and 55 passing, along with 16 first downs per battle.

Johnson led the team in rushing with 777 yards and a 5.4 mean, while Roger Letso picked up 347 for a 3.5 average, Keegan 295 for a 3.5 mean, Mark Rhodes 185 for 5.2 per carry and Ole Barrera 91 yards on 12 carries for a nifty 7.6 average, and along with Johnson gave the Apaches a double-barrel kick-off return threat.

Back-up man Ken Karnes demonstrated the value of depth and added some lightning of his own as he picked off 5 of the team's 14 interceptions.

All-Leaguers Lead Team Effort

With Second Team All-Ohio defensive tackle, Larry Rice, and Most Valuable Defensive Back Roger Letso at linebacker leading the team in tackles, the Apache defense held opponents to an average of 11.2 points per game. Rice, who finished second in total defensive points to Letso, also was the team's Most Valuable Defensive Lineman.

The Fairview gridders positioned 8 players on the NWBL first team with 3 named on offense and 5 on defense.

The Apaches Most Valuable Offensive Back, Mike Johnson at halfback, Terry Masser at tackle and Most Valuable Offensive Line-man Mike Vandemark at center were named to the offensive squad, while Rice at tackle, Letso at linebacker, Most Valuable Player Mark Rhodes at halfback, Ole Barrera at safety, and kicking specialist Jerry Brown were Apache representatives on defense.

Fairview placed four men on the second team with halfback Brian Keegan on defense, and end Joe Nester, guard Chris Mack, and Rhodes at quarterback, on offense.

Nester led all receivers with a 29.5 yards per catch average for his "star" status, while Keegan hauled in 5 balls for a 28.6 mean. They each had 2 TDs.

Gaining Honorable Mention were Les Mangel, Doug Myers, Rich Petrone, Tim Rhodes, and Gary Guilford.

The Apache gridders also placed 13 players on the Green Meadows Conference team. Named to the first team were Mark Rhodes, Ole Barrera, Larry Rice, Mike Vandemark, Roger Letso, and Mike Johnson. Named to the second team were Brian Keegan, Joe Nester, Chris Mack, Les Mangel, Rich Petrone, Doug Myers, Gary Guilford, and Tim Rhodes.

Victories over Hicksville 20-14, and Wayne Trace 29-12, proved to be the highlights of the 1975 season for the Freshmen football squad, coached by Bill Ray.

Twenty-four athletes turned out for the squad in the largest turnout of freshmen in the school's history. The experience gained by the frosh should help them greatly in their next 3 years of varsity action and give them a chance to develop. The large turnout greatly pleased the coaching staff composed of head coach Ken Whalen, and assistant coaches S. G. Brugler, Bill Ray, and Junior High coach, Don Hange, assisted by graduate, Chad Peters.

Many of the ball players in this group will be stepping right into starting positions and hold the responsibility of promoting a winning football tradition at Fairview.

Volleyball and Golf

To be a player on the 1974-75 GIA Volleyball team meant many things - hours of practice, sore fingers, determination, meeting new teams and some old friends, traveling to area schools and entertaining visiting teams, victory and defeat. The varsity team had a record of 8 wins and 4 losses, giving them second place in the GMC league. The reserve team won 9 and lost 3 games. The combination of experience and height shows great promise for an even more successful season next year. During the winter sports assembly, Deb Edwards was awarded most improved player and Melanie Koch received the most valuable player award. Trophies were also awarded to Jo Vogelsong, Deb Edwards, and Melanie Koch for being selected to the first team all-league GMC.

The Apache linksmen, at twelve men strong, finished the season with an 8-13-1 record, almost nine times better than last year. This year's team had an average of 184 to their opponents 181 per nine holes. This year two records were broken. Tom Thatcher and Paul Krausen both shot a 40 to set a school record for nine holes. As a team, the linksmen shot a 174 for their best on nine holes. In the 1974 GMC league tournament, the linksmen came in with a surprising 3rd place. Steve Hubbard and Paul Krausen were awarded trophies for placing on the all-conference team. The linksmen came in 7th at the sectional, with Steve Hubbard being medalist (individual with best performance) for Fairview. The reserve linksmen wound up the season with a 4-5-1 record. They slated a 221 average to their opponents 215.

For this year's medalist position, Steve Hubbard and Paul Krausen were in a tight battle all year (the averages were so close that coach had to take them down to the .001 place) with Steve coming out on top. Steve had a 45.5 average, played in all 17 varsity matches, had 56.6 points toward medalist and won ten more points for the lowest average. Paul had a 45.562 average, played in 10 varsity matches and had 44.5 points toward medalist.

The linksmen are going to lose two exceptional golfers this year. They are Tom Thatcher and Paul Krausen, who both came on very strong in the last half of the season.

The 1974-75 edition of the Fairview Apache basketball team experienced the most rewarding season that a cage team has ever had at Fairview.

The Apache roundballers swept through their regular season slate, furnishing an impressive 16-2 mark, and setting a new record for the most consecutive victories with 14. The regular season also held the Apaches' fourth Green Meadows Conference championship with a perfect 6-0 slate, which is the first time any GMC team has ever gone thru the conference schedule undefeated.

The only blemishes on the Apache record were consecutive losses to Bryan 75-73, and to "AAA" Defiance 62-61. From then on however, the Apaches were unbeatable, sweeping their remaining 10 regular season foes, including a rematch with Bryan 60-51.

Led by third team All-Ohioan Kevin Appel, the Apaches continued their winning ways into tournament play, knocking off a tough Ottawa Glandorf squad 80-68, and Swanton 66-48, to cop the Sectional title. Equipped with Paul Krausen's tape player and "the Beatles," the cagers buried Coldwater 81-55, and Van Wert 65-49, to cop the first District Championship in Fairview's history.

The Apaches met a "Hard Day's Night" when they traveled to Bowling Green to open regional play, dropping a close 71-69 decision to Lorain Catholic on a last second shot.

The team established three other new records on the year with the most wins in a season (20), best defensive average (55.4), and winning percentage (.870). The Apaches finished 20th in the UPI's final state ratings, another FV first.

Individually, Appel was named to the third team All-Ohio squads in the UPI and AP polls. The team's MVP pumped in 464 points (a team record for season scoring), for a 20.2 average, and was a first team selection in the Green Meadows Conference, District 7, and in the Northwest District (AP), while also hauling in 366 rebounds for a 15.9 average to lead the squad.

Other players earning special recognition were Mark Rhodes and Curt Miller. Rhodes, who was second in scoring with 314 points for a 13.7 mean, gained Honorable Mention in the GMC and was selected to the second team in Ohio's District 7. Miller, who scored 234 points for a 10.2 average, received an Honorable Mention in the Northwest District by the AP wire service.

Fairview's stars had a great supporting cast, with Most Improved player Ken Karnes scoring 190 points (8.3 ppg.), as the team's floor leader. Also seeing a lot of action was Kreg Culler who was selected as the player with the best mental attitude, and carried a 6.7 average, followed in scoring by another junior, Randy Jerger, who contributed a 5.7 average; and senior Denny Haller with 50 marks and a 2.9 mean.

Reserve Roundballers Are 12-6

The '74-75' Apache reserves reflected the success of the Fairview varsity squad, cruising to a fine 12-6 record for the season. The success of the reserve team brought with it, reason for optimism in Apache basketball fans, as they searched for a reason to be joyful following the graduation of All Ohioan and a talented corps of senior cagers.

Following the '74-75' season, the Fairview reserves were faced with filling some awful big shoes, most notably Kevin Appel's 12 1/2s. Reserve coach Steve Mohr whipped his team into shape and developed many good ballplayers, four of which were a part of the tournament team.

The Apache Junior Varsity averaged 53.3 points per game throughout their 18 game slate while giving up only 42.4. The squad averaged 31 rebounds per contest, and 18.5 turnovers while shooting 38% from the field and 59% at the foul line.

The short Apache squad was rarely out of a ballgame by more than 10 points. Those losses came at the hands of strong Defiance, Ayersville, and Paulding quintets.

Individually, sophomore Craig Cook barely edged out junior Gary Hohenberger for the scoring leadership as he scored 134 points for a 7.9 point per game average. Hohenberger was close behind with 133 points and a 7.8 mean. Next in line was Jim Breninger with a 5.8 average, Tim Rhodes (5.4), Craig Haller (4.9), Curt Doan (4.7), and Mark Heisler (4.6).

Hohenberger was the leader in field goal percentage with 59%, while Rolland Wolfrum hit for 46%, Cook 45%, and Rhodes 44%. Larry Schulz was the team's best free throw shooter as he sank 74% of his shots, while Heisler connected on 71% and Hohenberger 69%. In the rebounding department, Cook again nosed out Hohenberger, as he pulled down 112 caroms to Dude's 111. Tim Rhodes added 85.

The highest points of the year were the double victories over Bryan, while Hohenberger, Breninger, Doan, and Cook added to their seasons by being added to the varsity squad for the tournament.

Young Cagers Have Ups and Downs

Sophomores Cop a 6-3 Record Freshmen Have 1-13 Season

A new basketball program was initiated for the 1974-75 season. This new addition was a team consisting of all sophomore cagers. The program gave those sophomores who didn't make the reserve team a chance to be on a basketball squad and to gain experience for possible positions on next year's teams.

The Apache cagers managed a fine 6-3 record, defeating Elmwood twice 49-20 and 42-34. They also squeaked past Defiance 46-45 and Anthony Wayne 47-44. They beat Napoleon 50-28 and Bedford 70-36. Their losses came at the hands of Emanuel Baptist twice, 42-50 and 49-50 and Anthony Wayne 45-56.

Top rebounders for the sophomores were Doug Myers, John Chamberlin and Tim Johns with 85, 68 and 47 rebounds respectively. High scorers were John Chamberlin, Tim Morrison and Chris Roberts with 75, 74 and 63 points with 13, 8 and 9 coming from the charity-stripe.

The Freshmen cagers ended the 74-75 season with a downhearted 1-13 record. Even though they played well, they lacked the height necessary to have a winning season. Also, as Coach Held explained, the freshmen lacked the teamwork to be effective. Everyone played for their own gain instead of playing for the team.

Their single victory, coached by Mr. Peters, was obtained by defeating Hicksville 41-36. In tournament play at Tinora, they were smashed by the Rams 16-50. Ayersville eventually won the tournament.

High scorers for the team were, Larry Heater, Steve Baden and Mike Edwards, with 78, 64 and 63 points respectively; 16, 10 and 5 points came via the charity line. Top rebounders for the freshmen were, Larry Heater with 47 offensive and 87 defensive rebounds followed by Steve Baden with 19 offensive and 37 defensive clutches.

Coach Held feels that when the team finally molds together they will be successful.

Matmen Have Best Season Ever

Ricke Places Sixth in State Tourney

Finishing with a 9-1 record, 3 tournament victories and advancing two wrestlers to the state tournament, the Apache grapplers had their most outstanding season. The team won 9 straight victories before losing, by 3 points, in the final match of the season to the undefeated Defiance Bulldogs.

The veteran Apaches dominated the local wrestling scene. They lost only one senior from last year's, 9-1, team. With 7 seniors and only one freshman on the team, Fairview had the edge in experience over their opponents.

In their first tournament of the year, the grapplers won the Otsego Invitational Tournament with Ole Barrera, Todd Rosebrock, Mike Johnson and Roy Dietrich snaring individual crowns. This was Fairview's first year of participation in this tournament.

The Apaches next tournament success came at the Napoleon Gold Medal Tournament. Scott Rosebrock, Ole Barrera and Brian Keegan each captured titles as Fairview won its first Gold Medal Championship.

The Apaches failed in their first attempt to bring home a trophy from the Delta Invitational Tournament as they finished fourth in the twelve team field. Ole Barrera placed second and Scott Rosebrock, Brian Keegan, Mike Johnson and Bob Culler placed third.

Fairview acquired their second straight GMC championship with an undefeated record in league competition, and eleven individual championships.

Sending 7 wrestlers to the district tournament, the Apaches won their second consecutive Sectional Championship. First place finishers Scott Rosebrock, Ole Barrera, Mike Johnson and Dave Rieke, second place men Steve Dietrich and Todd Rosebrock, and Bob Culler who placed third all made the trip to the district competition.

Ole Barrera and Dave Rieke became the first Fairview grapplers to compete in the State Wrestling Tournament in Columbus, by placing fourth in the district competition. The team placed twelfth out of the 60 teams participating.

In the state tournament, Ole Barrera lost his first match and was eliminated; however, Dave Rieke was not defeated until the semi-final round and placed sixth in the tournament. Dave is the first Fairview grappler to place in state competition.

In the special awards department, Ole Barrera won the awards for the most takedowns, most pins and the best win-loss record. Scott Rosebrock won the most improved wrestler award. Dave Rieke and Ole Barrera were named the most valuable wrestlers and thus co-winners of the Randy Highley Memorial Award.

JV's Wrestle Light Schedule

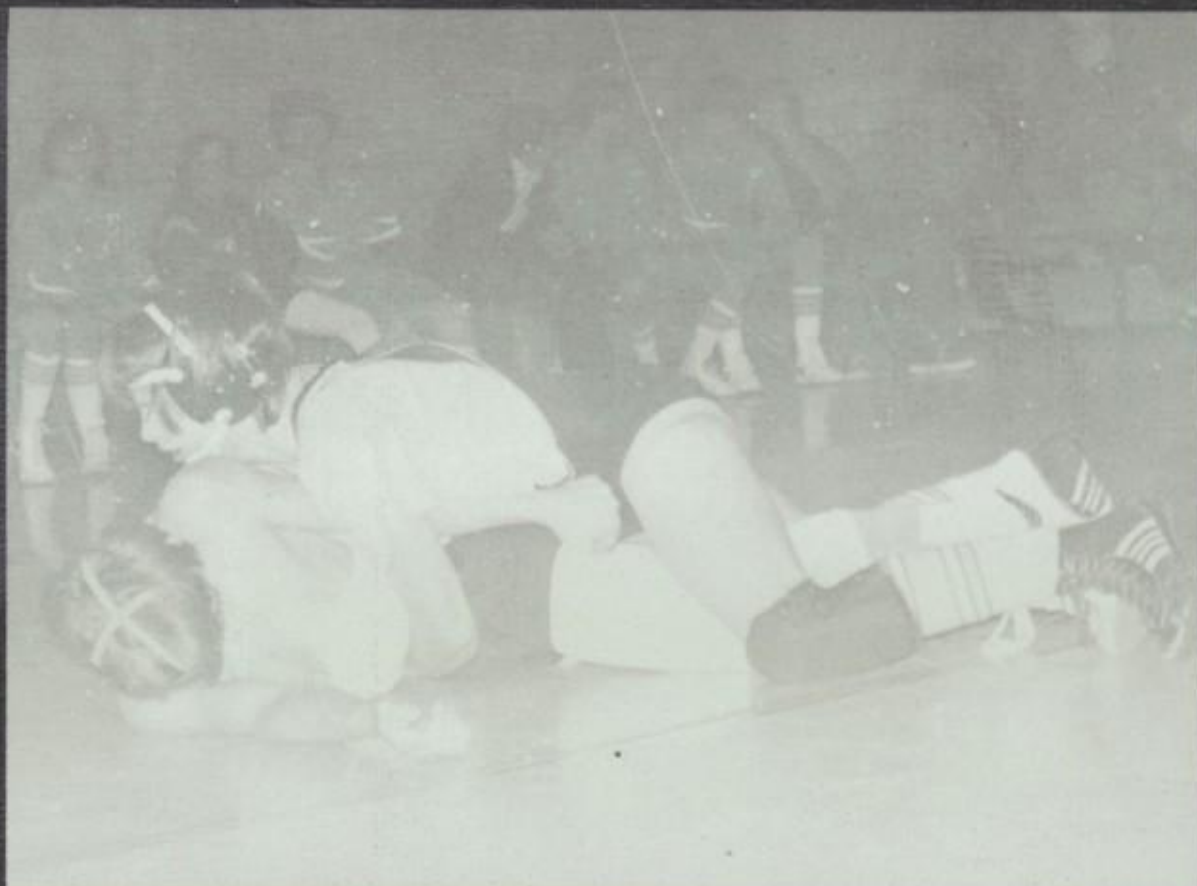

The Apache reserve wrestlers provided much-needed depth for the varsity squad, and gained experience for the next season when they must replace the 7 seniors who graduated from last year's varsity team.

The reserve grapplers defeated Bryan 63-12 in their only dual meet, and placed 4th in the Evergreen Reserve Tournament. Paul Brown finished first and Mike Chapuis and Jerry Caryer placed third in the tournament. The Reserves finished second in a triangular match with Napoleon and Bryan. They lost a close contest to Napoleon and defeated Bryan. Some of the reserves also wrestled exhibition matches, before or after the varsity meets. These matches didn't count, but they supplied valuable experience for the reserve grapplers.

The reserves got little recognition for their efforts; however, they provide competition for the present varsity wrestlers and provide a nucleus for the next year's varsity squad.

Once again the varsity baseball team enjoyed a successful season as they finished the year with a 15-16 mark. The Apaches arose victors in a close three-team race for the G.M.C. league crown. Fairview won the league with a 5-1 record, Tinora was second with a 3-2 mark and Holgate finished third with a 3-3 win-loss record.

In sectional play, Fairview lost in the first game of tournament play to a surprising Bryan team. Bryan continued their winning ways, and won the AA State Championship.

Curt Doan was the team's leading slugger as he finished the season with a .367 hitting average. Rolland Wolfrum led the team in pitching as he won six games and lost four and had a 3.16 earned run average.

Curt Doan and Randy Jerger were named to the G.M.C. all-conference team. Doan was also a member of the West Team in the District All-Star game, and Coach Peters was one of the coaches for the West Team.

The reserve baseballers, under Coach Mohr, had an excellent season in 1975, as they pounded out a 14-6 record. The reserves gave the varsity squad a great deal of depth. The freshmen baseball team completed the season with a more disappointing 1-4 tally.

Tracksters Have Ho-Hum Year

But Shatter Five Records

The Apache track team was a contradiction to itself in the spring of '75' as squad members broke five existing school records and added three more in new events, while at the same time qualifying no team members for District competition for the first time in seven years. In addition the Apache track men placed in the middle of the pack in the Green Meadows Conference meet, finishing fourth to winner Wayne Trace (97 points), runnerup Hicksville (91) and third place Tinora (81 1/2). Behind Fairview (76), were Ayersville (70), Antwerp (27), and Holgate (21 1/2). Dan Olds took the only first place in the GMC for the Apaches, copping the discus throw with a toss of 132 feet.

According to head track coach S. G. Brugler, the 1975 squad was the best overall squad that he had coached at this school. Bearing out his statement is the cluster of new records set by the team.

Dan Olds was the first to break the school record books as he tossed the discus 136' 9" in a meet against the Ayersville Pilots. That heave is almost nine feet better than the previous record held by Gerald Hanna since 1971.

Craig Cook, a sophomore, and senior Fred Stuckey each bettered records in the GMC league meet, with Cook establishing a new standard in the 440-yard dash and Stuckey in the two-mile run. Cook surpassed Rick Singer's 1974 mark of 54.1 by touring the track in 53.7 seconds, while Fred's time of 10:26.8 bettered the record held by Denny Haller since 1972. The Apache mile relay lowered the school record in that event at the GMC meet, and then broke the mark again at the Palmer Relays, as the quartet of Denny Haase, Doug Myers, David Kretzer, and Craig Cook burned the lanes for a 3:36.5 clocking.

Denny Haase cracked the standard in the 180 yard low hurdles with a time of 21.5 seconds, also at the Palmer Relays held in Defiance. In addition, the Apache two-mile relay made up of Jerry Caryer, Chris Roberts, Fred Stuckey, and Ole Barrera ran the track in 8:45.8 to establish a record in that new event for the Fairview record books, while the four-mile relay did likewise. That foursome of Rick Suffel, Jerry Caryer, Craig Haller, and Fred Stuckey made it in a time of 19:05.7.

The final event which gained notice was the triple jump as John Chamberlin jumped 35' 7" at the Ottawa-Glandorf Gold Medals to enter another mark in the record book.

Gaining special awards on the squad were Denny Haase (MOST VALUABLE, and MOST POINTS SCORED), and Fred Stuckey (MOST IMPROVED).

The Freshman track squad added three new records also. Keith Laffin tossed the small discus 151' 9 1/2", Vic Dunson burned the 220 yard dash in a time of 25.6 seconds and the 440-yard relay set a freshman record of 51.5 seconds. That foursome consisted of Tom Ramus, Tom Grinnel, Tim Grinnel, and Dunson.

Coach Don Hanges Frosh team finished 0-4 in dual meets, last at the Whitmer Relays, and ninth out of thirteen teams at the Lima Relays, but gained needed experience and confidence for future years of track success.

8 WINS

4 LOSSES

The GIA Varsity Basketball Team ended their season with a record of 8 wins and 4 losses. The lack of height and experience hindered the Apaches, having only two players return from the previous year. Injuries didn't help improve their game and they had plenty of them: two black eyes, a bad knee, a sprained ankle, and lots of bruises. Even though the girls didn't always come out on top, they got out there and gave it all they had.

Their toughest game was with Tinora which went into a triple overtime, Tinora being the victors. Another highlight was in their first tournament game, against Holgate, they were down by 15 with three minutes to go in the game, but the girls managed to make a fantastic comeback and won the game by four points. In the second game they were defeated by Hicksville 52 to 23. Hicksville then went on to win the tournament.

At the end of the season awards were presented to Melanie Koch, most improved and Deb Edwards, Most valuable player. Deb also received a trophy for being selected to the first team all-league GMC and Melanie received one for honorable mention or second team all-league.

The Reserve Team had a record of 9 wins and 2 losses, somewhat better than the Varsity's. They had tremendous height and several freshmen, which should prove for some good seasons in the future.

The track season turned in the best record ever for the girls with 7 wins and 1 loss. They won the Wau-seon Relays, placed third in the Napoleon Gold Medals, and placed fourth at the Defiance Alumni. In the GMC meet, Fairview led up until the last race which was the mile relay. The girls had the relay won by a great margin, but were disqualified for handing the baton off out of the exchange zone. Tinora went on to win the relay giving them ten points which tied them with us, ending the meet Tinora 91 and Fairview 91.

All records but one from previous years were broken during the 74-75 season. A few of these were: 80 yd. hurdles with a time of 11.7, the mile relay 4.43, 220 yd. dash 28.5, and the mile run with a time of 5.25.5. Something more must be said about the mile. Darcy Tomlinson, a freshman and also FV's mile runner, started out the season with a six minute mile, but wasn't quite satisfied. Each meet she would decrease this time. She won the mile at pre-district, enabling her to go on to district. She also won at district which took her to State. Darcy pulled through to win the AA State Mile with a record time of 5.25.5.

Others participating at district were: Mary Money in the hurdles, the mile relay team, and the 880 medley team.

Awards were presented to Mary Money, most valuable player and most points, having 163 1/3 and most improved was Darcy Tomlinson.

The team will only lose one senior, so next year should prove to be another great season.

1974-75 Apache Cheerleaders

Enliven Season Through Spirit

Involvement was the key word for this year's cheering squads. They sponsored several money making projects to purchase their outfits. These included: two record hops, numerous car washes, and collecting pop bottles. Their spirit was then carried on into several pep sessions, one in which Mr. Whalen got hit by a pie, and another, which was a surprise, to honor our two wrestlers who were representing us at state. Also held was a bonfire which will be continued in the following years. A supply of signs were always being made to support our victorious teams.

One controversy the cheerleaders and administration ran into was the conflict of basketball games and wrestling matches being held on the same night, in turn, causing a decision to be made as to which cheerleaders would attend which event. Due to this problem, a change is being made in the 1975-76 cheerleading tryouts. In April girls tried out for the following sports: Golf, Cross Country, Football, and Basketball. Five girls were chosen to represent these sports and then in the fall, five more girls will be chosen to represent the other sports: Wrestling, Track, and Baseball. There will still be one mascot.

ORGANIZATIONS

NHS

Club Sponsors Slave Week

The National Honor Society has been very active this year. In September they held their annual initiation for the new members being accepted into the organization.

The N.H.S.'s first school oriented function consisted of the decorating of the gym for this year's Homecoming dance. The theme was "Hayride Harvest". The Student Council assisted in the efforts of decorating and making this a success.

Thanksgiving brought the project of collecting clothes and food for a young widow in the area, whose husband was involved in an accident leaving her alone with her two young children.

During the months of March and April, the N.H.S. was involved in such projects as "Send a Mouse to College" and "Shamrocks for Dystrophy." Money was collected by both the N.H.S. and the Student Council in an effort to aid the drive for Muscular Dystrophy and Cancer.

The month of May brought "Slave Day" to the N.H.S.'s members. Members helped the area's elderly in Spring cleaning and general clean up around their homes.

Office Help, Librarians

Keeping Things Running Smoothly

Students have found the library a place where they can "get away from it all." Some of the main attractions were the "This Fabulous Century" books, and "The International Volumes of Negro Life and History," also the racks of paperback books.

Without the students help in the library and office, Fairview's librarian, (Mrs. Johns), secretary (Mrs. Simms), and the students' lives would be a little tougher. We'd like to take this opportunity to thank all the hard working guys and gals.

Our office has been a great convenience to the students in that it has a good supply of the needs of the students for the school year.

FLS

Varsity Club

Foreign Language Society started the year off with a wild and messy initiation. Next on the agenda was a Surprise Welcome Party for the foreign exchange students - Pierre Heger, Raphael Burgos, and Hubert Cuykens. Christmas found us caroling in sub-zero weather and trying to keep warm to the strains of "Tintez Cloches" (Jingle Bells in French). For one meeting the FLS members converged on the Holiday Bowling Lanes speaking French and Spanish. Everyone was fined 5¢ for each English word spoken. The next meeting found all the members taking an African Safari with Mabel Jackson. The Spring meetings included a picnic and a dance.

This fall the Varsity Club's projects included selling mums for Homecoming, spirit jackets and jerseys and also license plates.

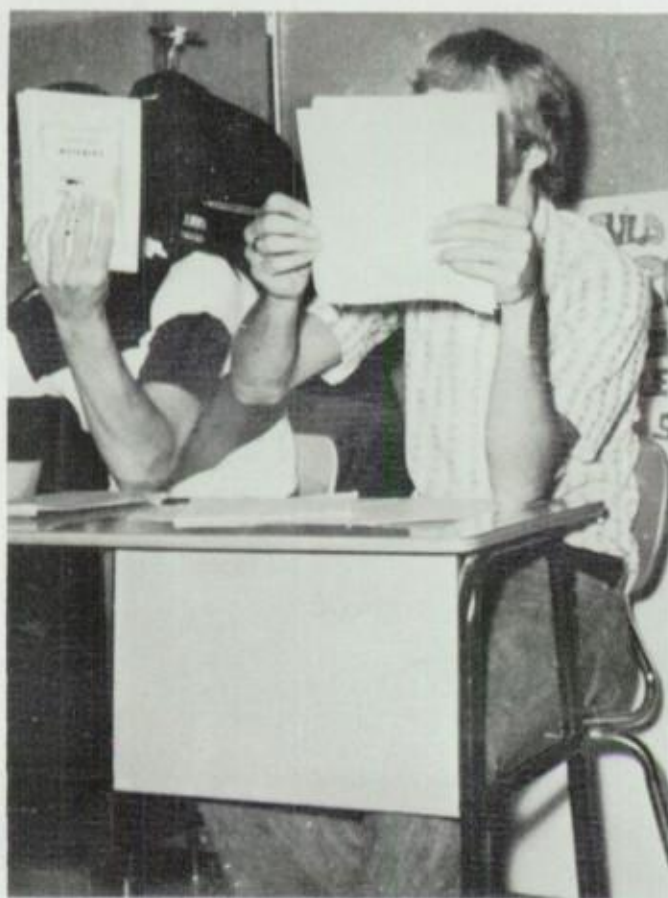

Members ordered special jackets with a Varsity Club insignia on the front and their last name on the back.

A trip to Detroit to see the Piston-Celtic game was a high point in their busy agenda. Around 20 members left Fairview at 5:30 not to return until the early hours of the morning.

NIKE, Student Council

Defiance Field Trip, St. Council Exchange With Wayne Trace

Under the capable leadership of Kelley Vance, President; Kathy L. Hale, Vice President; Ann Wilhelm, Secretary; Patsy Bashor, Treasurer; Nike had an active second year. Barb Walker, Kelley Vance, Marilyn Timbrook, and Ann Wilhelm were awarded the charter for this organization during the 1974-75 year by the Professional Business Women's Association.

The field trip consisted of a Defiance field trip to various businesses. At the Defiance Staircase, the Defiance Public Library, Strait Realty, and the Courthouse. Nike members learned about the role of women in today's society. Mrs.

Fritz was advisor to the club.

The Student Council was organized in the fall with Les Mangel as President, Joe Nester as Vice-President, and Jean Armstrong as Secretary-Treasurer. The first activity of the council was to organize the Homecoming Dance at Fairview High School. This year's theme was "Hayride Harvest." It was a congenial effort worked on by both the Student Council and the National Honor Society.

This year the Student Council tried a new learning experience. Les Mangel was contacted by the Student Council of Wayne Trace and a Student Council Exchange was set up; providing for the visitation of each school. The idea was to learn the procedures and techniques of each others school. Our Council felt it was quite beneficial to us and is hoping we can make an exchange with another school in the area next year.

One of the last functions of the council this year was to meet with the Board of Education. The Council brought up a wide variety of grievances and the Board responded quite openly.

The last new action dealing with the Council was the election of new officers before the end of the 74-75 school term.

Girls' Athletic Association

Providing Many New Activities

The singing of nursery rhymes and sitting in squishy tomatoes started off the G.A.A. Frosh initiation this year. It ended with an egg getting smashed on the girls' heads. It was rough but most of the Freshmen survived.

The next important event was the selling of Ivy Kits. The G.A.A. made over one thousand dollars worth of sales which enabled the group to add over four hundred dollars to their treasury.

Co-ed bowling was a Saturday morning event which lasted for fifteen weeks. At the end, awards were presented to Jerry Brown and Deb Edwards for the High Series, Mike Edwards and Sue Brenner for the High Game, Jill Decker and Bruce Morton for Most Improved Bowler.

In February, the G.A.A. members went swimming at the Antwerp indoor pool. The members kept themselves busy by keeping Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Heisler under water.

The biggest event of the year was the slumber party held April 11th in Fairview's gym. At 8:00 the G.A.A. members left Fairview to attend the movie

"The Front Page." They returned at 11:30 to pizza which was delivered from Tiny's Pizza Place in Bryan. The girls then proceeded to play records, ping pong, basketball, and shuffleboard. Playing with the medicine ball was also included in the festivities. Very few people slept throughout the night due to a group of seniors that waited for sleeping victims. They then proceeded to wake them up by pulling them out of their sleeping bags. At seven o'clock in the morning breakfast consisting of rolls and orange juice was served. Everyone was tired but had a great time.

The G.A.A. year was concluded when the members returned to the Antwerp Indoor pool. Awards were presented afterwards. Everyone then ate at the Dairy Queen in Hicksville.

The G.A.A. had a very successful season this year. They had more outside activities than ever before and plan for even better results next year.

Student Action for Education

ABOVE: Having their students read to them is one method some SAE teachers use when teaching.

Service to the community, and assistance to the teachers and students were practiced by the SAE members. Those industrious students rotated and taught at various schools in our system. This year the students taught a remarkable 98 times.

Selling pins, ribbons, and other school spirited articles added to their treasury's moderate account.

This year the SAE's main field trip took the members to Findly College where the college students toured them through actual classes, dorms and study centers.

The last action taken by the members was a banquet where awards and honors were bestowed to the deserving students.

Future Farmers of America

Three Receive State Degrees

The Fairview Chapter of FFA boasted a membership of ninety-three including three State Farmers, Joe Nester, Mark Poulson, and Rick Yoder. They also have four graduates remaining as members, Tim Pendleton, Greg Guilford, Ray Bok, and Jerry Yoder.

The Greenhand initiation was a change of tradition in the form of a formal chili supper.

Several members of the FFA attended the Farm Science Review in Columbus. They learned many things about the types of new farming equipment from Ohio State University.

Each year the Conservation Class and Future Farmers improve the land lab. This year they fenced it in.

FFA members dutifully assisted in the annual Blood Mobile held at Fairview. When not busy parking cars, they also helped people to their chairs. Not only were they busy during the actual blood mobile, but before and after they unloaded and loaded the containers.

Twenty-one schools participated in District Judging. Fairview was one of the six schools competing in all the contests. The results were as follows: Poultry, 2nd; General Livestock, 11th; Dairy, 12th; Agronomy, 6th; Meats, 4th; Wool, 4th; and Mechanics Contest, 3rd.

Officer training was held March 17th at Bryan High School to acquaint the new officers with their offices. Newly elected officers from schools in Fulton, Williams, Defiance and Henry Counties attended. Attending from Fairview were Curt Doan, Brian Keegan, Mike Miller, Phil Yoder, John Poulson, Rick Bauer, and Jim Briening.

State Judging was held on April 5th. Fairview came back with flying colors.

Future Homemakers

Serving the Community

Trips, meetings, projects, educational films, and speakers highlighted this year's FHA meetings. The 65 members sponsored the Sweetheart Hop, a trip to the Children's Hospital, a Halloween Party, a pot-luck dinner with the members' mothers, and a senior farewell banquet.

Two educational films were shown during the regular meetings. Out of Sight, Out of Mind, a show illustrating how to work with the elderly, prepared the girls for their Christmas visit to the Fountain Manor Rest Home where they sang carols, put up trees, and handed out gifts through the FHA's own Santa Claus. Self-defense was studied with the help of a movie and a Defiance County Police officer, who spoke at the meeting.

Projects included the fair booth, Sweetheart Hop, Tom Watt Kits, State Degrees, and Award of Merit kept FHAers busy. The theme, "Building a Rainbow," made the annual Sweetheart Hop a success. Their money-making project, traditional Tom Watt, grossed enough to finance the projects.

Individual efforts were contributed by many to make the special meetings and projects successful. Fairview FHAers attended the County and Sub-regional meetings. During FHA Week, February 28, they presented a radio-TV program over the Archbold station.

Patsy Bashor and Deb Calvin successfully completed the FHA State Degree while twelve members received the Chapter Degree and six others finished their Junior Degrees. A special committee completed the Award of Merit requirements. To finish the year, eleven members attended the State Convention in Columbus.

Choir Performs Exchange Concert

Country Western's, 50's, Contests, a church service, and school assemblies were just a few things that kept chorus members busy this year. The hard working officers President - Ken Losey, Vice President - Rita Kash, and Publicity Chairman - Janice Arend proved to be assets in the success choir members shared.

The first major event of the fall was a Country Western Show. It featured many solos, ensembles, and selections from the full chorus. To round off the theme there were polkas and square dancing.

Next on the agenda was preparing for the holiday seasons. In their first appearance in robes, the choir sang "Hosana" and "The Blessing of Aaron" for the school at the Thanksgiving assembly.

The Christmas spirit started early with the first exchange concert with Tinora. Fairview traveled to Tinora on a foggy Friday morning and performed for their Christmas assembly, and when finished with their selections the Tinora choir joined in singing a few numbers from Handel's Messiah. Tinora later came to Fairview to perform a similar concert for our Christmas assembly.

The Christmas Concert was on a rainy windy Sunday that made you think of and feel like anything but Christmas. But after the choir entered the gym donned with candles and processing to the strains of Silent Night, the mood changed quickly with a very merry Christmassy flair.

Choir members found the New Year's activities surrounding solo and ensemble contest. Twenty-one soloists and six ensembles competed at Bowling Green and brought back 14 superior ratings.

Next on the agenda was District Choir Contest, where all three groups competed. The Girls' Choir received a superior rating while the Mixed and Boys were less fortunate receiving excellent ratings.

Girls on to State

Choir Broadcast Over WBNO

If you happened to see a bus full of laughing, singing, card playing, teenagers on Route 24 going towards Toledo, you were witnessing some of the music students on their way to Toledo Symphony. The highlight of the afternoon was the performance of the William Tell Overture.

As the 27th of April neared the girls glee diligently prepared for State Contest. The girls boarded the buses before dark for Bowling Green where they sang at 8:30. While waiting for the results the group gorged themselves on rolls, submarine sandwiches, pop and orange juice only to be disappointed by an excellent rating.

Even with May being near the end of the school year Choir members' duties were not lessened, for the first Sunday was their annual trek to the Bryan Presbyterian Church. They participated in the entire service which was a live broadcast over WBNO. After the services, everyone attended a tea in honor of the choir.

Mickey Mouse, The Sound of Music, Selections from West Side Story, various solo and ensembles, plus our own versions of "Monster Mash" and "The 1955 Miss America Pageant" highlighted the 50's Concert, held May 10th. The theme brought back many memories to various people as the costumes of the choir surrounded the audience "Hokey Pokeying." Then the audience also participated in the success of the show by joining the choir in the Hokey Pokey.

To end the fun-filled year, was the graduation ceremony, which was to some a sad but joyous occasion.

Marching Band

Under the direction of Mr. Edwin Herroon our mighty Apache Band stamped on to the warpath numerous times during the past year. The Injuns kicked their horses into high gear last summer when they danced into Frankenmuth, Michigan to appear in the annual Bavarian Festival Parade. For 4 weeks the marchers slaved at perfecting their show so as to live up to their reputation of being one of the best around. In its entirety, the 103 'Paches stomped and kicked their hardest to the tune of "Hoop Dee Doo" and were extremely well received.

The band also made public appearances at the Bryan Jubilee, and other homecoming appearances in the area. In competition, our high-stepping Apaches ranked third at John Paulding Days with ten area bands in competition. The summer heat intensified and still the band practiced improving their techniques. As the summer progressed the band emerged again when they played at the Wauseon Homecoming. With August came the annual Defiance County Fair. The fair is very important to the marchers and they worked extremely hard to put on a show that no one could forget. A new attraction was added to the band; a squad of sixteen pompom girls. These girls were the icing on the cake as they made the band look prettier than ever.

The summer drew to a close and with the start of school, marching season continued as they went strutting on.

Football season saw the Apache high steppers appearing at every football game. A football style competition was held in the style of the Defiance Band Spectacular where the football band performed.

As football season ended so did the Marching for the 1974 year. Mid November saw the band members attired in entirely different outfits for practice, sight reading and concert pieces.

The Christmas Concert went off with great success, as the band played many familiar Christmas carols.

Solo and ensemble contest was the main concern for the New Year. The many members came back with very good results.

Concert Band

Large group contest which was in March, saw the Apache Concert Band receiving an excellent rating.

The trek to Cincinnati for the Band Spectacular was a break in the concert season. The 'Paches competed against six selected schools from the states of Ohio, Kentucky, and Indiana. Although our marching Apaches didn't bring home a trophy they did a spectacular job.

The Spring Concert was a great success as usual. The Sousa Award was announced and presented to Kristen Culler.

Graduation ceremony was near the end of the Band members duties, as they played for the Seniors to enter and leave.

Memorial Day ceremonies were the last commitments of the Band member for the 1974-1975 season.

Staff

Headaches and Frustrations

Time, patience, work, and loads of perseverance are required of staff members to meet the deadlines during the year.

To finance the year's publications, the journalism class canvassed the area businessmen for ads. This year we also sold $1.00 Apache Booster Ads.

Amidst littered tables in the business room, many after school and evening hours were spent to produce a memorable book for the student body.

Privileges . . .

Seniors Allowed More Freedom

Being a senior meant many things but most of all it meant being privileged - having advantages over the underclassmen. The selection of classes was the first area where this right was exercised. In classes that were too crowded, underclassmen were the first to go and seniors were the last to be moved because it was their last chance to take that course.

Being a senior meant going to the front of the lunch line, being the first to leave after an assembly was over, and rapping in Mr. Edwards' or Mr. Miller's rooms instead of going to ninth period study hall.

More often, it meant little things like not getting yelled at so much when you were late to a class or getting away with skipping school when you weren't really sick. Being a senior meant leaving school for a day to visit a college, look for a job, or register to vote. And finally, at the end of the year, it meant no exams and one week less of school. Being a senior meant having fun.

Register!

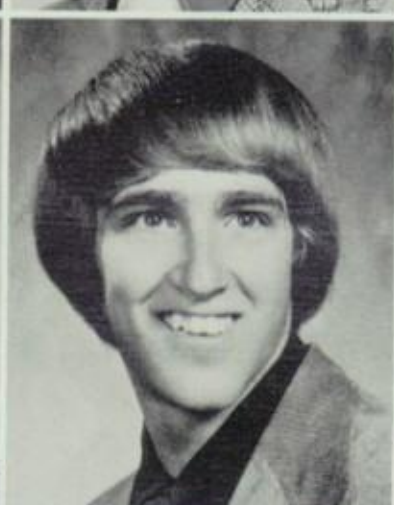

Seniors Become Active Citizens

In large groups, couples, or all alone, many seniors took their first step toward becoming active citizens. Under the urging of Mr. Fritz, most of those seniors who were eighteen, or would be by the next general election, took a trip to the annex of the Defiance County Court House where they registered to vote. After signing on the dotted line and receiving instructions from the clerk on where to vote, they left the building excited and feeling a little more mature.

Senior Athletes

This year's senior class contributed a great deal to athletics at Fairview during their 4-year stay. Among the impressive list of accomplishments are the naming of Kevin Appel as a third-team All-Ohio center and Larry Rice as a second-team All-Ohio tackle, the participation of Ole Barrera and Dave Rieke in the state wrestling tourney, and best-ever seasons in football, wrestling and basketball Pictures!

They Finally Got Here!

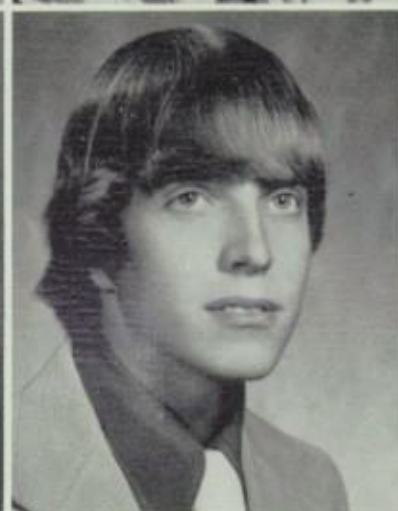

Sweaters, combs, and sports coats over blue jeans characterized the seniors on Monday, Sept. 16th and Tuesday, Sept. 17th, as they readied themselves for their senior pictures. The portraits this year were taken by Collingwood Studios of Grosse Pointe Woods, Michigan. Guys and girls turned, twisted, and sat up straight while Mr. Weber took 7-8 photos of them in black-and-white or color, then were held in suspense until the prints finally arrived.

In Memory . . .

Many friends around us, all so kind and true
Many are forgotten but remembered by us too.
Thus it was with our friend Kim, so kind, shy and good He'll never be forgotten by us I feel he never could
Although he was so quiet, Kim always did his best
To make the people around him happy with cheery love and kindness
He held within his heart.

Graduation

Together for the Last Time

As the end of the school year approached, the seniors began to ready themselves for the ceremony ahead. Caps and gowns were fitted and on May 23, the last day of school, practice began. In the staggering heat, the seniors paired off and practiced marching in and out of the gym for what seemed like an eternity to some. Finally, Mr. Breisinger announced that they were through and the hot, tired seniors left for their picnic at Independence Dam.

Two days later, the Class of 1975 met again for the very last time at the graduation ceremonies. In spite of the intense heat, the seniors in the front rows sat erect while Rev. Laffin and Mr. Wolfe delivered their addresses. The lucky ones hidden from view in the back rows, however, relaxed and passed around pop and candy. The graduates were presented with their diplomas then, and after the ceremony was over, marched solemnly back to the cafeteria where they said hurried good-byes and left to begin their new lives.

Class Rings Finally Arrive

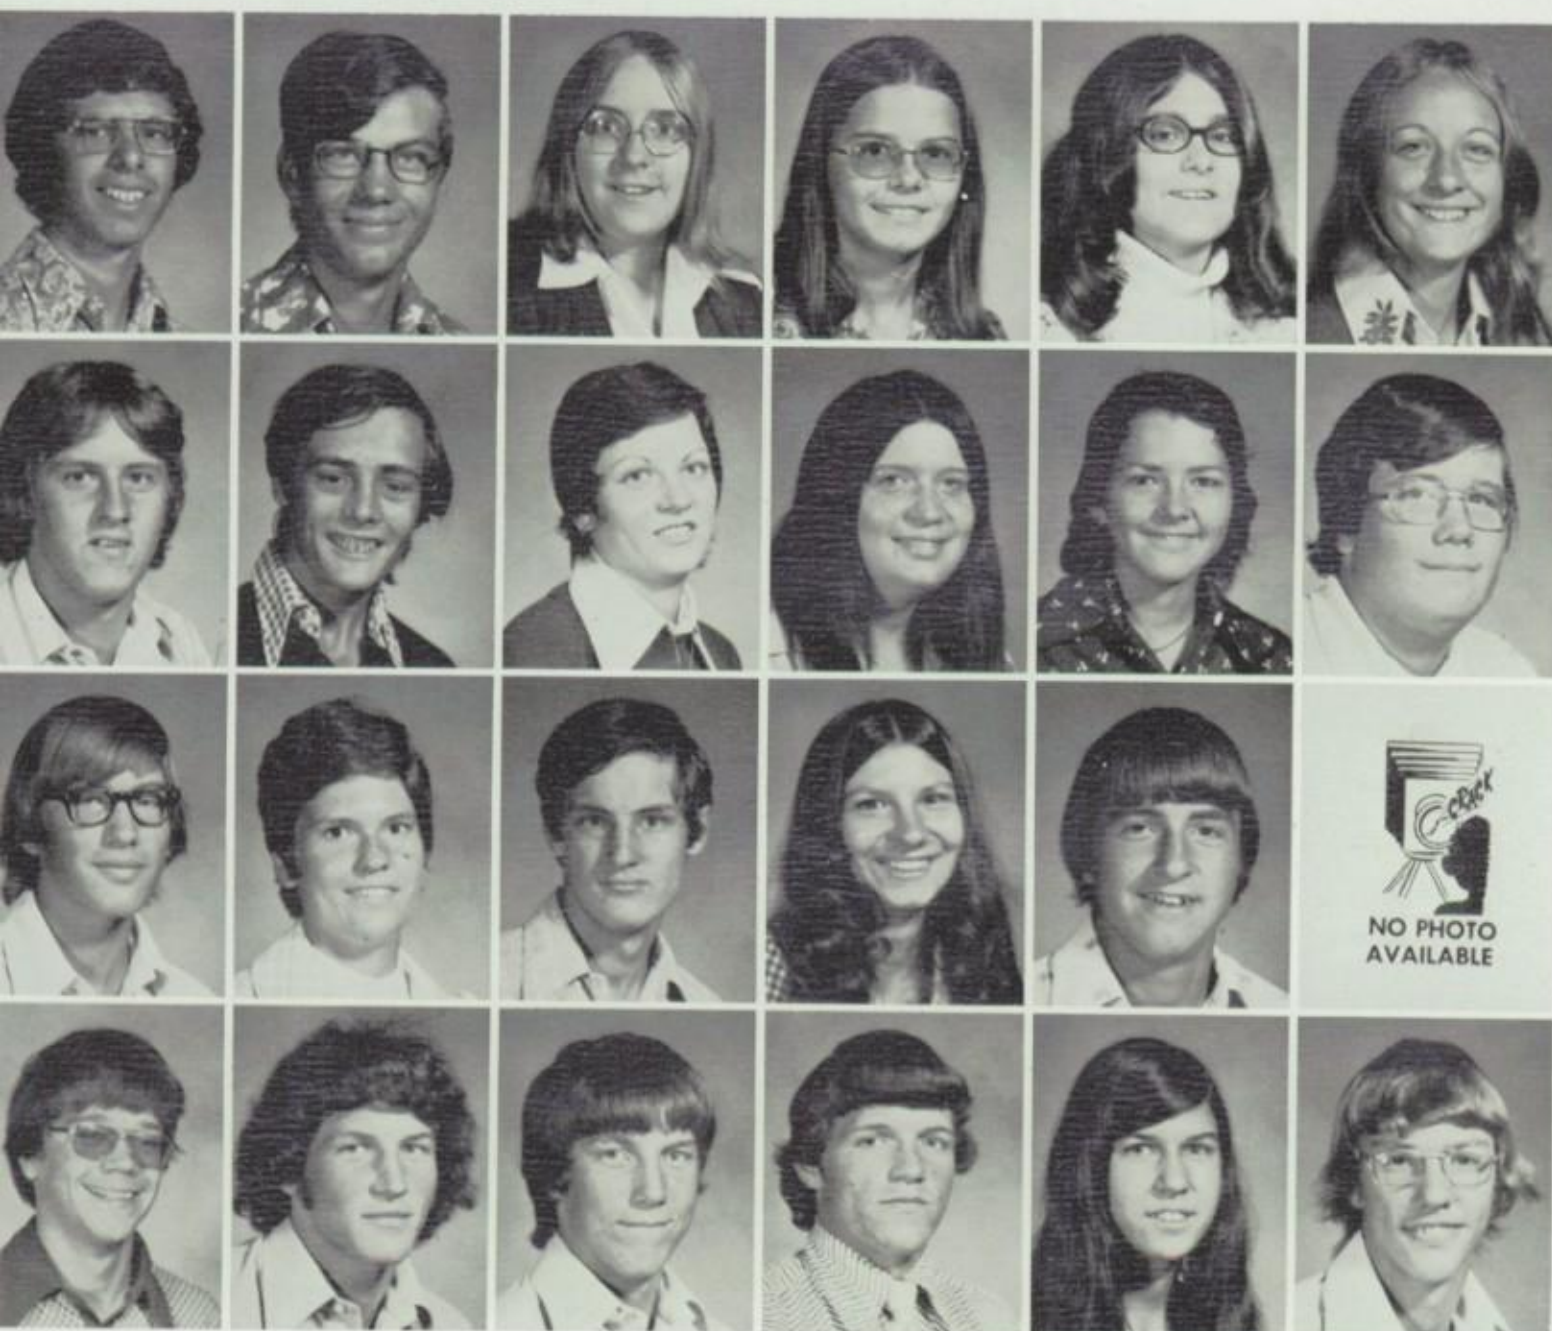

Excitement filled the air when the junior class received their rings in September. Girls and boys displayed their rings on outstretched hands while inquiring about everybody else's new possessions. Gold, white gold and sterling silver were the three styles to choose from. An option of having the name or actual signature given on the inside were offered.

Late in October, a bon-fire was held to boost up the spirits before the upcoming Hicksville-Fairview football game. Skits were presented by each class. The junior skit had a decimede stamping out the ace's. The panel of five teachers chose the juniors as the winners.

On the cold fall night of November 2nd, the junior class was bundled up awaiting the hayride. Two wagons driven by a few volunteers crept away from Tammy Sonnor's residence to some dark, dreary and desolate roads. After the one hour adventure of stuffing straw and hiding under the blankets the wagons headed slowly back to the Sonnors.

A feast of cider, hot dogs and donuts awaited the hungry crusaders. Dancing and music filled the air and many juniors sat around the bon-fire.

The juniors chose "Showboat" as the theme for the May 17th prom. The class worked eagerly to make the prom a memorable event. The semi-formal dance had the couples dancing to the music of the Country Ramblers. Seven committees consisting of: theme, program, refreshments, dance, raffel, invitations and post-prom activities; were formed to plan the prom. To raise money to cover the cost of inflation; and to build up the treasury, the juniors sold raffel tickets for an AM/FM stereo-record player. The drawing was held on the night of the prom. Many students participated in dyeing the sheets, donated by the juniors, and sewing them together. A great deal of time and effort was spent on the preparation of the prom and making the big event a success.

In Memory

When God takes people from us, we ask the question: Why?
But there's no need to question, God always does what's right.
He doesn't show us favorites, It's young and old alike,
So please ask no more questions God always does what's right.
If God takes a loved one, And they're no longer by our side,
We lift our eyes to heaven and say,
"I know God's always right."

Dedication to

Sophomores

Sophomores find themselves in the middle, too old to be a kid anymore, too young to enjoy the privileges reserved for juniors and seniors. Now a respected and hard-working part of the school, sophomores can look back on the days of being the followers, ahead to the days of being the leaders.

Excitement about taking driver's education stemmed from student's sincere desires to get driver's licenses.

Any student whose sixteenth birthday fell no later than half-way through one semester qualified for a driver's education class. Sophomores and a few freshmen reported to a scheduled afternoon class.

Each student's work program included three phases. They spent about 60 hours in classroom instruction, 12 hours of actual driving, and 24 hours of observation.

Bumper Stickers Boost Spirit

Late in March representatives of Josten's came to take ring measurements and collected order blanks from the sophomores for their class rings.

The rings came in various sizes with the student choosing the stone and the stone effect. An option was having the actual signature or name engraved inside the ring.

Many of the students participated in ordering their rings.

The sophomore money making project was selling bumper stickers. Dan Simonis designed the SUPPORT THE FAIRVIEW APACHES sticker with the Hubbard Company co-operating in printing them. The stickers were sold for fifty cents a piece. A profit of $90.00 was made. The money will be spent on preparation of the next year's Junior-Senior Prom.

Freshmen

Getting Acquainted

As usual, this year's freshmen spent the beginning weeks of their first year at Fairview wandering aimlessly and looking more or less lost in the gigantic maze of Fairview High School. Fortunately, with the patient and understanding help of the older and wise upper-classmen they somehow made it through.

Heading up the class of '78 was president: Menno Wagler, vice-president: Jeff Nofsinger, secretary-treasurer: Joe Jacob. Representatives on student council were: Meg Behringer and Mike Edwards.

The year's freshman attendant for the 1971 Homecoming was Helen Barrera.

In sports, the Frosh Football team ended up 2 and 3, defeating Wayne Trace and arch rival Hicksville, while falling to Paulding, Crestview, and Wauseon.

Freshmen

Active in Many Sports

Cagers had a rough time of it, going 1 win to 13 losses beating only Hicksville.

In spring sports, the track team went 0 and 6, and the baseball team closed the season 1 and 4.

Outstanding Freshmen included Darcy Tomlinson who set two school records in girls track with a 5:48 mile run and the 880 in 2:34.

Scott Rosebrock finished with the third best record on a championship varsity wrestling team with a 21-5 record. Scott also won the Napoleon Gold Medal's G.M.C. Conference Championship as well as becoming FV's second Freshman sectional Champ. Scott won the State AAU Championship and advanced to the Nationals.

Brent English placed in several AAU Tournaments and advanced to the Nationals.

Mrs. Husted . . .

Completing a Thirty Year Teaching Career

After thirty years in the profession, Mrs. Florence Husted completed her final year of teaching this year at Fairview.

After receiving her Bachelor of Science degree from Purdue University, Mrs. Husted spent two years teaching in Michigan, one year at Kunkle, one year at Ridgeville Corners, and fifteen years at Stryker. Then in 1966 she came to Fairview and began teaching with Mrs. Struble in the Home Economics Department. There she taught Comprehensive Home Ec., Junior Foods, Child Care including six weeks of Play School each year, and the new unofficial "Chef's Class."

Mrs. Husted has also been the co-advisor of the FHA for the past eight years. As advisor, she supervised the club's meetings, gave advice to the committees and the executive council, chaperoned parties, and provided transportation to special meetings.

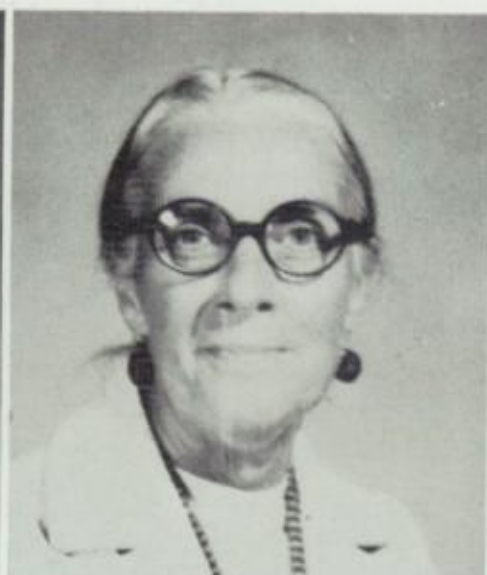

"I'm going to miss teaching," she said. "I'll miss the great relationship I had with the students, their families, the rest of the faculty, and the administration, and the school board."

Board of Education

Planning Junior High Addition

Besides handling routine business, this year's six veteran school board members were faced with several major issues. The first came on October 15, 1974, when by a unanimous vote, the board changed school policy to allow married and/or pregnant students to attend regular classes at Fairview.

In the spring, the board met with the Fairview Student Council and the two groups discussed topics from dress code to male cheerleaders.

The biggest task they faced during their monthly meetings was the planning of the new Junior High addition to the high school. After the $1,300,000 bond issue for the building was approved by the public in the November election, they began working with the architect and contractors in completing plans and approving materials for the project.

Finally, the plans were completed and on Tuesday, June 17, they met for the official ground breaking ceremonies.

Superintendent

Mr. Jones Fills in as Ney Principal

As superintendent of the Central Local School District, Mr. Jones' official duties involved approving all purchases for the school district and supervising all personnel. In addition, on October 19, 1974, when Mr. Olan Smith passed away, he took over as principal of the Ney Junior High School and stayed there the rest of the school term.

Throughout the year he worked with the architect and the school board in planning the new junior high building and in the summer he worked with them and the contractors in getting construction under way.

With the teachers and the rest of the administration, he organized a more systematic teaching appraisal method, for the fall of 1975 and worked with committees of the principal and teachers from each school in conducting an indepth study of all the courses offered.

Taking care of these and other odd tasks required a lot of time. In fact, Mr. Jones spent approximately sixty hours each week on the job.

ABOVE: A busy man, Mr. Jones handles two phone calls at one time.

Mr. Breisinger Handles All School Activities

Building maintenance, students, faculty, curriculum and discipline are a few of the major areas that kept Mr. Breisinger busy each day in this his sixth year at Fairview. As principal, he is responsible for every activity that goes on at the school. It is his job to see that everything gets done and if he can't find someone to do a task he has to do it himself. When this occurred, students could see Mr. Breisinger doing all sorts of odd jobs like setting up microphones, roping off the gym, and even mopping the hallway.

Mr. Breisinger spent more than sixty-five hours each week at the school. He attended nearly every activity that was scheduled including every basketball and football game and most of the track meets.

One project that required his attention in 1975 was the self-evaluation of the school. With Mr. Jones and the Fairview faculty, he discussed every course offered at Fairview and weighed each one to determine its value.

Custodians, Bus Drivers

Putting on the Miles

Bringing students to school from all corners of the district and seeing them safely home again was the job of this year's twenty-one bus drivers. These men and women covered the 168 square mile school district on twenty bus routes, traveling 1569 miles each day. Besides their regular routes, many of the drivers put in extra hours driving buses to special events like ballgames and music contest.

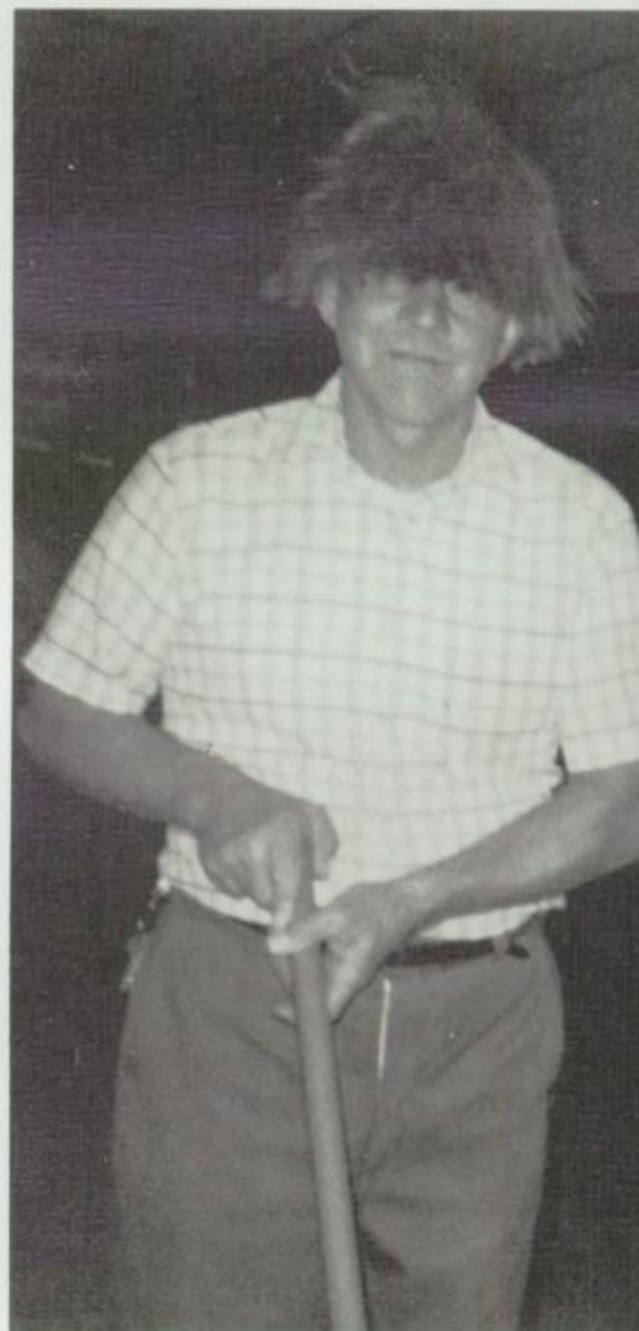

While the bus drivers were traveling on wheels, Fairview's two custodians were putting on the miles by foot. Russell (Dad) Heisler and Howard Vail spent a good deal of their working time pushing a broom around the school's hallways and classrooms. During the day shift Mr. Heisler also took care of school maintenance by mopping the gym, cleaning the cafeteria, locker rooms, furnace room and restrooms, turning on the flashers by the road every morning and afternoon, greasing the pump at the lift station once a week, mowing the grass, changing light bulbs, and doing other odd jobs.

After school and in the evening, Mr. Vail took over to clean all of the general classrooms in the academic wing, clean the restrooms, lock the building at night, and handle other general tasks.

Both men stayed after school on Friday and Saturday nights to sweep the gym floor during the halftime of basketball games and to clean up after the crowds went home.

After school let out for the summer, Mr. Heisler and Mr. Vail returned to clean the entire school and to scrub and wax all of the floors.

Cooks, Secretary, Bookkeeper

Keeping Things Running Smoothly

Preparing meals for approximately three hundred people each day kept Fairview's cooks Anna Hartman and Mary Dull busy. Following guidelines set by the State Department of Health, Mrs. Dull planned each menu to provide a well-balanced diet for the students and faculty. With the help of twenty students, it took the women five and a half hours each day to prepare the meals and to clean up afterwards.

Hiding in the office below the South stairs this year was Fairview's bookkeeper Muriel Motter. For the sixth year, Mrs. Motter handled all of the activity funds for the school district. She also did secretarial work for Mr. Jones and Mr. Breisinger, sold lunch tickets in the cafeteria, and occasionally read announcements over the P.A. system.

The friendly voice heard reading the announcements over the P.A. system every morning belonged to Alice Simms. In her eleventh year at Fairview, Mrs. Simms served as secretary to the school administration, supervisor of the office girls, and cashier in the cafeteria.

The staff would like to acknowledge the following people and organizations:

COLLINGWOOD STUDIOS - Senior portraits, group photos, Homecoming and graduation candids.

DEFIANCE CRESCENT NEWS - use of pictures and negatives.

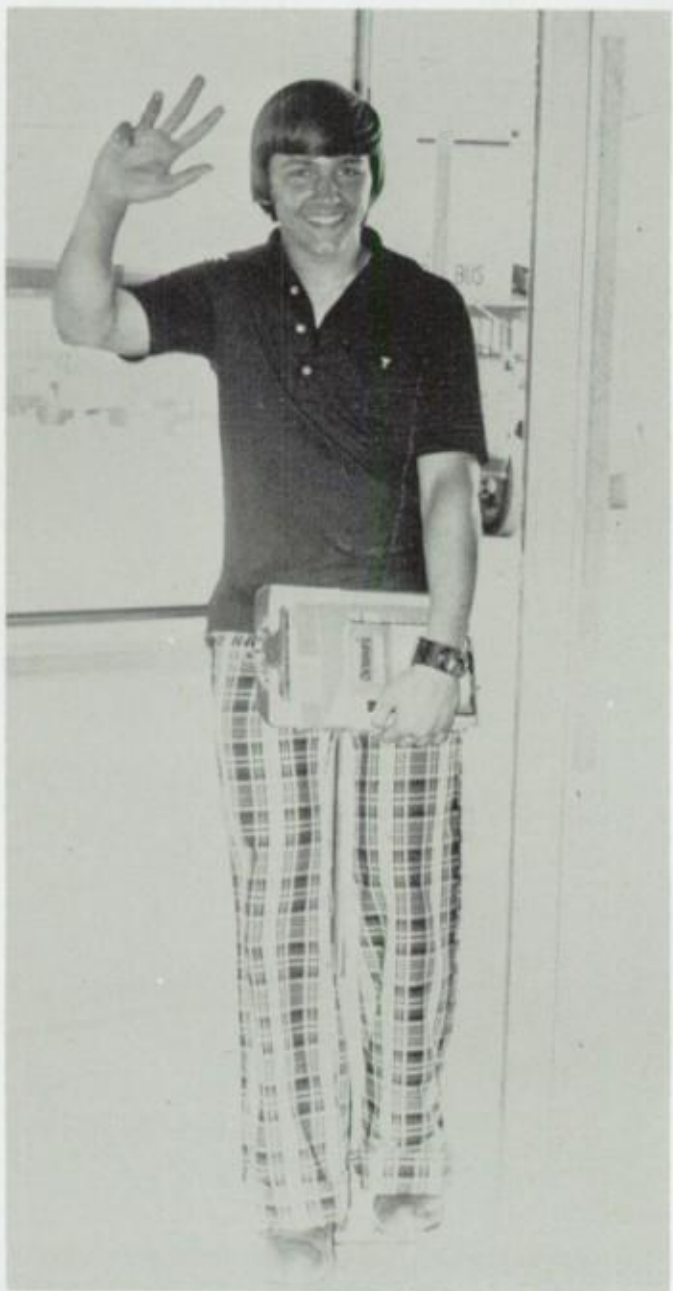

FAIRVIEW FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION - for their cooperation and support in picture-taking and gathering information.

NATIONAL SCHOOL STUDIOS, INC. - Underclass portraits.

MRS. MABEL ROEBROCK - Yearbook and photography workshops and special advice.

TAYLOR PUBLISHING CO. - Printers.

STEVE WHITE - Taylor representative.

1975 - Already that year seems distant.

I can still remember it vaguely, though. I remember the pride we felt as we watched our football team go on to capture the NWBL co-championship, as our basketball team entered the gym for tournament games, and yes, I still remember that horrible night we lost to Lorraine Catholic.

That defeat did not dampen our spirit though. Our pride grew stronger each day as more championship trophies were brought into the office - 12 in all. But we held our heads high not only because of our athletic teams. We were proud of our view's clean hallways and neat appearance. Few schools could compare with the friendly atmosphere there.

And we were proud, most of all, of the people there that we called friends. We went through a lot together and I hate to think I'm forgetting them.

But the memories, like the jeans that I wear, are already . . .

Faded and Fringed.
